

BUILDING YOUR NEST

The Stonybrook name was inspired by a lovely stone and shingle, Cape Cod-style home we toured as a young married couple – a home that captured our hearts and minds. Something about its storybook charm, timeless appeal, exceptional craftsmanship, and whimsical blue door lit a spark that became a dream of building beautiful homes together.

Now as third generation builders, we specialize in the art and science of home building from inception to crafted final product. You can trust Stonybrook Homes to guide you through the entire building process with a friends-and-family standard of customer care. No matter your personal style or what “dream home” means to you, we are thrilled to provide an extraordinary home building experience.

WELCOME HOME

We strive to make the custom building experience a rewarding and enjoyable one.

Through open communication and a seamless building process, we capture each owner's creative vision and bring to life a uniquely personal home they will love for many years to come.

TESTIMONIALS

"We were so pleased with our choice to use Stonybrook Homes. They were very responsive to all our requests and their sub-contractors were top notch. They gave us the home of our dreams!"

— Kim and Steve

"We hired Stonybrook Homes because of the personal attention we knew we would receive. We love our home and have and will continue to recommend Stonybrook."

— Troy and Mindy

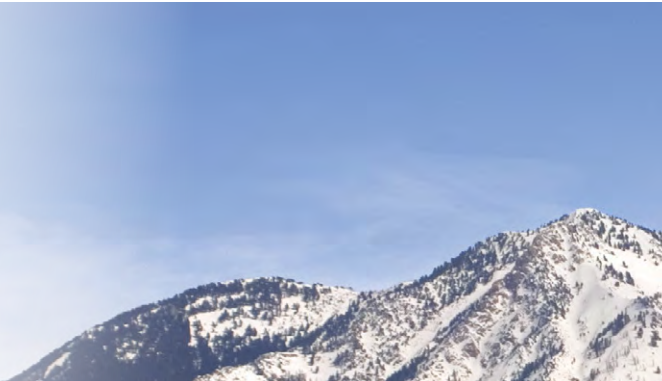

"Thank you so much for building such a beautiful home, we love it, and have already started new traditions and are making new memories."

— Russ and Lisa

"It was great to know during the entire build process that everything would be taken care of and done right. Took all the worry off of us."

— Norm and Melinda
